HUAYLLABAMBA / LLULLUCHAPAMPA / WARMIWAÑUSCA / PACAYMAYO

The most intense day of the Inca Trail is coming, make sure we take some extra sweets in our handbag for extra energy. We advance through the Valley Huayllabamba while observing ecological change while moving from the mountains to the highlands. In Yunca Chimpa we will prepare for the climb up to Llulluchapampa (3,750 mt. / 12,303 ft.). While we enjoy a refreshing snack, we will appreciate the Huayanay Valley and our challenge of the day, the defiant Abra de Warmiwañusca (4,200 mt. / 13,799 ft.) also known as "dead woman". If we are lucky, we will enjoy the beautiful hummingbirds and sparrows that live in the area. Finally, we descend to our camp at Pacaymayo (3,600 mt. / 11,811 ft.) for lunch and then rest after this day of challenges and spectacular views.

DAY 5:

Here we finish this day, we will camp and have our farewell dinner. In the area, there are public restrooms with hot showers. If we are not tired enough, which we doubt, there is a youth hostel where we can spend a few moments before going to sleep.

DAY 6:

WIÑAYWAYNA / INTIPUNKU / MACHU PICCHU

We are one step away from our main goal. We proceed to the colonial district of Yanahuara, famous for its church built in Andalusian style and its lookout, built with a beautiful architecture surrounded by ashlar arches. Then we'll visit the Monastery of Santa Catalina, impressive religious monument that was closed for about 400 years; with narrow streets, squares and gardens reminiscent of the old quarters of Seville or Granada. Early in the morning we visit the pre-Inca cemetery of the Hatun Colla Chiefs in Sillustani, on the shore of Lake Umayo. They are famous for its Chullpas or funeral up to 6 meters high towers. Then we visit the plateau colonial town of Lampa, known as the "Pink City" because most of the houses are painted with chocorosí, material similar to clay brought from the hills surrounding. In the town stands out the church of St. James where a replica of "La Pieta" by Michelangelo is, as well as paintings from the Cuzco school. Box lunch. Then we will head to Juliaca airport to take the flight out to Lima.
